

A Shepherd Looks At Psalm 23

Chapter Two

From Elizabeth George, "Powerful Promises for Every Woman:"

More is implied than is expressed, not only, I shall not want, but, "I shall be supplied with whatever I need; and, if I have not every thing I desire, I may conclude it is either not fit for me or not good for me or I shall have it in due time."

Define the phrase "shall not want" in verse one.

What is the condition of those who are under the management of Sin and Satan?

How does the "boss" of your life change your destiny?

What characteristic do those who are surrendered to the Shepherd display?

Define a "carnal Christian" and list similarities with the sheep "Mrs. Gad-about."

Are you discontent in any area of your life? If so, write how you can surrender that to God:
